

THE PTA IS GOING WIKI!!!!!!

No Meetings Required

Welcome Everyone,

In an effort to bring ourselves into the 21st century the PTA is in the process of having it's own Wiki page on the school website. Here we will list the events for 2012 and where we need your help. All you need to do is offer your advice, time, expertise, donations, sponsorship etc by simply clicking on a link. NO ATTENDING OF MEETINGS REQUIRED!

To show our support to you, the families of Waiau Pa School, the PTA has decided to donate $1,000 to each syndicate towards transport costs for camps, trips and outings for 2012. We hope this takes the pressure off what is always an expensive time of year. The PTA however, relies solely on parent help to assist with fundraising events. Events for 2012 are listed below and will soon be on our Wiki page. We would appreciate your support!
